

POLE BARN CONSTRUCTION

Post Frame Construction (Pole Barn) shall be designed by a design professional registered in the state of Kansas. Post Frame structures shall be designed in accordance with the 2018 International Building Code or 2018 International Residential Code requirements for exposure “C” and roof snow load of 20 psf. Construction drawings shall be sealed and signed by a design professional registered in the state of Kansas and include all framing details, post to beam, connection method, wall bracing method and approved footing for the proposed structure shall be identified and referenced on submitted construction plans.

If pre-engineered truss system, roof/floor, will be used, complete set of details to Truss layout plan engineered sealed truss package shall be submitted for review and approval.