Miles for Meals 5k Run/Walk

The tenth annual Miles for Meals 5k Run/Walk was held on Saturday, June 10th, 2017 and was a tremendous success. Through the support of all of our sponsors, race participants, and other fund raising activities throughout the year, we were able to donate over $24,476.00 to the Feed the Need campaign. Thank you to all that were involved with this event, and we look forward to seeing you again at this year's race on June 9th 2018!

For sponsorship information, please contact us by email at taxinfo@jocogov.org or by phone at 913-715-2600.

About Feed the Need

Since 1987, employees of Johnson County Government have participated in the annual Feed the Need campaign. All donations of food and money benefit ten area food pantries serving eligible Johnson County citizens.

The 10 food pantries include: Blue Valley Multi-Service Center in Overland Park, De Soto Multi-Service Center, Spring Hill Multi-Service Center, North Central Multi-Service Center in Lenexa, Gardner-Edgerton Coordinating Council, Shawnee Community Services, Catholic Community Services in Mission and Olathe, and Salvation Army and First Christian Church both in Olathe

Throughout the year, employees from various county departments and agencies sponsor fund raising events ranging from food drives and chili cook-offs to golf tournaments. The monies raised are received by the Johnson County Charitable Foundation, Inc., a Section 501(c) (3) tax-exempt organization, and in turn, disbursed to the food pantries at the end of year's campaign, ending each July.
