

Appendix A

Preparers and Qualifications

PREPARERS AND QUALIFICATIONS

The following team members from Burns & McDonnell Engineering Company, Inc. (Burns & McDonnell) prepared this EA for JCAC.

Shari Cannon-Mackey, CEP, ENV SP

Project Role: Project Manager
Title: Department Manager/Associate
Education: MLA Landscape Architecture, BLA Landscape Architecture, and BS Fisheries and Wildlife Biology
Experience: 27 years of experience in NEPA documentation, public involvement, corridor and site analyses, environmental studies, and regulatory agency coordination

Brandy Harris

Project Role: Principal Investigator – Non-Archaeological Historic Resources
Title: Senior Cultural Resources Specialist
Education: MA Public History; BA History
Experience: 14 years of experience in all aspects of cultural resources management; focus on architectural history; NEPA documentation; Section 106 compliance and Section 4(f) Consultation

Andrew Gottsfield, Ph.D., RPA

Project Role: Principal Investigator – Archaeological Resources
Title: Cultural Resources Specialist
Education: Ph.D Anthropology, specialization in Geoarchaeology, MA Anthropology, BA Anthropology
Experience: 20 years of experience leading archaeological and geomorphological studies; Section 106 compliance and consultation

Ryann Williams

Project Role: Wetland Delineator/USACE Coordination
Title: Assistant Environmental Scientist
Education: BS Geology
Experience: 8 years of experience in wetland delineation and permitting, soil classification, plant identification

Sara Sizemore Shea-Cahir, PE

Project Role: Hazardous Materials/Wastes Due Diligence Lead
Title: Environmental Engineer
Education: MS Environmental Engineering, BS Chemical Engineering
Experience: 18 years of experience conducting due diligence audits and Phase I/Phase II Environmental Site Assessments in compliance with applicable ASTM standards

Grant Cox

Project Role: GIS Specialist
Title: Assistant Environmental Specialist
Education: M.AG/M.AGR Geographic Information Science, BA History
Experience: 8 years of experience in data collection, application of geographic information and global positioning systems and tools, cartographic and representative mapping and exhibit development

Robert Crain, AICP

Project Role: Lead Aviation Planner
Title: Project Manager
Education: BA Liberal Arts, Masters in Urban Planning
Experience: 22 years of experience in aviation master planning, public involvement, and FAA coordination
