The federal, state, and local governments have a partnership through which numerous governmental services are funded and made available to citizens. This partnership is dependent upon stable funding, decision-making at the appropriate level, and removing barriers to efficient and effective access to services. Johnson County strongly supports the following core principles as the means to an effective and improved partnership among each level of government and underlying issues.

1. RETAIN AND ENHANCE COUNTY HOME RULE AUTHORITY, MAINTAIN LOCAL DECISION MAKING AND OPPOSE UNFUNDED MANDATES.

Johnson County supports the retention and strengthening of local home rule authority to allow locally elected officials to conduct the business of their jurisdiction in a manner that best reflects the desires of their constituents and results in maximum benefit to that community. The County opposes mandated responsibilities from the state without being fully funded.

The County further:

- A. Supports a constitutional amendment granting counties the constitutional home rule authority currently granted to cities.
- B. Supports continuing the ability for citizens and elected officials of each jurisdiction to determine if county elections are held on a nonpartisan or partisan basis and retain the ability of vacancies in nonpartisan elected positions being filled through nonpartisan means.
- C. Supports current law regarding the use of eminent domain by local units of government for utilities and public infrastructure improvements.
- D. Supports the repeal of 2016 Legislation granting the automatic placement of cell towers in city and county owned right of way to allow regulation of the placement of cell towers by reasonable local zoning processes which review important community values such as safety and neighborhood concerns.
- E. Supports the repeal of 2016 Legislation curtailing local control over inclusionary zoning policies and rental property licensing programs regulating interior inspections. Local officials, who are tasked with the responsibility to develop and maintain safe, sustainable cities and counties, should have the flexibility to address the need for affordable, varied types of housing as integral components of both their economic development and public safety duties.

2. MAINTAIN FINANCIAL STABILITY AND ENHANCE PROCESSES FOR COUNTY GOVERNMENT SERVICES

Many critical county government services are financed by federal and state governments. As a key provider, Johnson County seeks federal and state appropriations at levels adequate to meet the needs of the recipients. Furthermore, Johnson County opposes reductions in funding for services that result from actual reductions, as well as cuts in “real dollars” which result from a lack of inflationary adjustments. Johnson County does not support reductions in state funding, nor changes in state taxation that would reduce resources available for the State to carry out these functions. Moreover, the State should explore the possibility of providing greater flexibility to local units of government, allowing local control as opposed to implementing any additional reductions in programs or services due to State funding cuts.

- F. Supports allowing the County Appraiser, rather than the State of Kansas, the ability to grant property tax exemptions on property owned by governmental entities and used for an exempt purpose for efficiency.
- G. Supports maintaining the current system of non-centralized county appraisers to meet the needs of each county.
