

2021 Suicide Prevention Mini-Grant Opportunity

Mini-Grant Opportunity for Local Suicide Prevention Initiatives Provided by Johnson County Suicide Prevention Coalition

What: Mini-grants of up to $500 will be awarded to applicants with projects that focus on suicide prevention in Johnson County. The number of awards will vary, based on applications.

Timeline: Applications will be considered on a monthly basis, reviewed on the second Tuesday of each month, beginning June 8, 2021.

How: Fill out application attached to this document and submit to spc@jocogov.org.

Grant Reporting and Requirements:

1. Each group or individual applying must have a designated organization that can receive, monitor, and distribute funding.
2. If awarded, W-9 is required before payment.
3. Grant funds must be spent within three months of award date.
4. Event summary report emailed to spc@jocogov.org no later than 30 days after initiative completed and funds spent. Report includes pictures of initiative, a brief summary of the strategy, and number of individuals reached.
5. Groups may be asked to present at an upcoming JCSPC meeting.

If you have any questions or need assistance in filling out the grant application or determining prevention activities, please contact spc@jocogov.org.
